The Harvard Center for Jewish Studies and the Harvard Standing Committee on Medieval Studies present

Soul Food and Salvation
Eating Animals in Medieval Ashkenaz

David Shyovitz
Associate Professor of History and Jewish Studies, Northwestern University

The third annual Distinguished Lecture on Medieval Jewish Culture and Society

Tuesday, 30 October 2018
5:00-6:30 pm
Barker Center 133
12 Quincy Avenue

This lecture is made possible with the support of the Center for Jewish Studies Yanoff-Taylor Lecture and Publication Fund and the Mahindra Humanities Center’s Jewish Cultures and Societies Seminar. For more information, please visit http://medieval.fas.harvard.edu.

Image: The Meal of the Righteous, from Milan, Biblioteca Ambrosiana MS B32, f. 136r (1238 CE)